If D+10 falls on a Sunday, funeral will be held on a Monday.

Council procedure

- Council meetings, if the summons has been issued, the meeting cannot take place if any of the 3 clear days fall within the mourning period, if there are three clear days prior to D-Day, then the meeting can go ahead but will be at the discretion of the Chairman, with appropriate minutes silence and tribute, as appropriate.

- Any prearranged Council events may need to be cancelled during the 10 day state mourning period, all costs of cancelling the events will need to be incurred by the event organiser.

Flag

The Union or National Flag should be flown at half-mast (note half mast is actually 1/3rd of the way down the flag pole) throughout the period of morning, except for D2 Proclamation Day when the new King is Proclaimed (Operation Spring Tide).

All flags to return to normal by 9.00am the day after the funeral.

Website

Suitable words must be put on the website by the Chairman, with no corporate restrictions. Full details of what is happening during the mourning period should be included on the website. A shadow page should be prepared on the website in readiness, and should include links to donations, services, flower information and flags and proclamation.

The home page will be overwritten with a portrait of HM Queen during the period of mourning in addition to the shadow page.

Book of Condolence.

A book of condolence which should contain an approved portrait of the Queen, will be provided by the Parish Council and should be opened on the first working day after the day of death.

The book of condolence will be located at the Parish Office or the Church of the Good Shepherd during the state mourning period, the website will advise.

The book of condolence will be closed at the end of the day following the day of the funeral and should then become part of the parish archive. A condolence letter should be sent to the Private Secretary of Buckingham Palace advising that the Book of Condolence is to be held in the Council archives.

Area to lay flowers

- Under the Village Sign on Lymington Bottom Green. Flowers to be laid without plastic or cellophane.
- On D11 a notice will posted, flowers will be removed and composted and planted with commemorative tree.
