Councillors' Code of Conduct

PREAMBLE TO THE CODE OF CONDUCT

This preamble provides an explanatory introduction to the Councillors' Code of Conduct. It is not part of the Code of Conduct itself.

Introduction

Four Marks Parish council has adopted the following code which deals with the conduct that is expected of Councillors and co-opted members of the Council when they are acting in that capacity, as required by section 27 of the Localism Act 2011.

The Council has a statutory duty under the Act to promote and maintain high standards of conduct by Councillors, and this code sets out the standards that the Council expects its Councillors to observe.

The code is not intended to be an exhaustive list of all the obligations that are placed on Councillors. If in doubt, Councillors should seek advice from the Clerk/Clerk or Monitoring Officer or Deputy Monitoring Officer at East Hampshire District Council, but the final decision and responsibility on how to act rests with Councillors themselves.

Councillors should not do anything in their capacity as councillors, which they could not justify to the public or could not justify by law. Councillors' conduct, and the public's judgement of that conduct, will affect the reputation and creditability as councillors and the Council as a whole.

Failure to comply with the code may result in a sanction being applied by the Monitoring Officer.

Expectations and values

It is the responsibility of individual Councillors to understand and comply with the provisions of the Code of Conduct and the protocols contained in or linked to Standing Orders. Councillors have a responsibility to ensure that they comply with the Code of Conduct in all respects.

- Councillors will treat each other and officers civilly and with respect.
- Councillors will regularly review their personal circumstances and intended actions in the context of the Code.
- It is not enough to avoid impropriety; perception that no impropriety has occurred is also important.
- Councillors should avoid giving any grounds for suspicion and any appearance of improper conduct.
